King's College is one of the oldest and most beautiful of the colleges of Cambridge University. It was founded in 1440 by King Henry VI. Its crowning glory is the Chapel, built in the English Perpendicular Gothic style, and in which the carols on this disc were recorded. This Chapel inspired three sonnets by the poet Wordsworth.

The Choir, which is one of the most famous church choirs in Britain, consists of 30 men and boys. Their broadcasts of a service of carols every Christmas Eve are a regular and well-loved feature of the BBC's Christmas programmes.
