A Christmas tale

6 1/4

The wonderful fir-tree.

In the forest grew a pretty little fir-tree.
He had plenty of sun and air,
and near him stood his fellows fir^{trees} or pines. He wished very hard to grow up. In winter, sometimes foxes who jumped over the little fir, ~~which~~ made our fir very angry.
After two winters running,
the fir was so tall that the hare was obliged to run round the fir tree ~~that he might~~.

Autumn came, and woodcutters
threw down some of the thickest trees, and cut off their branches.
