English

The philosophy of an animal The elephant is the greatest of all the animals and is near the man by his ^{its} intelligence -

He is neither blood-thirsty nor wild; ~~he~~ it is naturally gentle. ~~He~~ it is quiet and contemplative, ~~he~~ it loves nature and it finds it beautiful; with great delight it walks on the banks of the rivers or, in the deep valleys, in the shady places, always with its comrades, because it hates solitude.
Here it remains thoughtful during many hours. How it has great wisdom and judgment. It is very kind for the man and it serves him with great pleasure only when the man who behaves well and deals with it kindly. But when
