Narration

Good day, Ketick, saw a young seal one day in June.

- How do you do, baby seal? answered Ketick who was now a big seal with large fins.

- Very well, but from where do you come?

- I have just learned how to swim. My father was the teacher. It is very funny to swim in the sea. The waves are bigger than on beach.

and they bear us to and fro. My father has tought me how to move the fins and how to proceed surely. The first time I plunged I drunk much water and ~~and~~ had not my father taken me out. I should have perished. But, by degrees, I learnt how to open the eyes under water, and the mouth ~~with~~ without drinking. And now I
