Describe one scene of Griselda.

The Marquis of Saluce had promised his subjects that he would take a wife, he would choose his wife alone, and he made his subjects swear that they would accept without any objection the wife he had chosen, and would honour his wife as they honoured.

him - When he said the day he would be married and the time passed.

Near the castle, there was a village where dwelt a shepherdess, a young girl called Griselda - She dwelt in a poor cottage with her father Fanicula who was very poor - Griselda was extremely beautiful and wise -

She took care of her father, she did everything to him, she did any sort of work, in the day she looked after the sheep, when the evening came she prepared
