You last quarterly test in English.
A few days ago, we had our quarterly test in English. The evening before, I had seen again my lessons and had revised the English words and grammar. I had been very careful for revising all that because I would be the first in this test. After having seen all, I had gone to bed, thinking of my test. But I slept quietly and in the morning I was very alert. But while the hours passed, I became more and more anxious and remembered all the advice that our teacher had given us before. I had the head full of English words and I thought that I could not translate well. At last, we went into the school room and we took our places. When all the boys were sitting, the teacher gave us the subject. It consisted of
